PROPOSALS

For Publishing, by Subscription,

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF

SIR WALTER SCOTT:

With a Biography: being the first American (and only) edition which contains the Author's last additions and illustrations, arranged upon their respective pages.

A COMPLETE and uniform edition of the various productions of the great 'Minstrel of the North,' is a desideratum with the American public. No library is complete without them, and no edition extant is sufficiently compact for such a repository; while the endless number of editions, without any uniformity in size, heretofore published, besides being exceedingly cumbrous, are far too voluminous and expensive to be within the reach of the great majority of readers. The undersigned therefore announce, that they have now in press, and will issue, an edition of the Works of Sir Walter Scott, which will embrace all his Poems, Novels, Histories, Biographies, and Fugitive Compositions, as well as the Biography and Private Correspondence, now in the course of publication in England, under the superintendence of Mr. Lockhart.

1st. In Parts: each Part embracing as much matter as is contained in two volumes of the present editions of the Waverley Novels, which will be put at the unprecedented low price of THIRTY SEVEN AND A HALF CENTS.

2d. Two parts will appear each month; but should the publishers find the work to meet the patronage they anticipate, FOUR PARTS will be issued monthly.

3d. The whole will be completed in seven volumes, or forty eight parts.

The paper on which the above is now printing, has been made expressly for the purpose; the present parts may, therefore, be considered a fair specimen, in every respect, of the whole work; but, should dissatisfaction arise with any subscriber, owing to an inferior article being offered, he may discontinue at any time, and have the amount paid returned.

Note.—The publication of the first volume is deferred until the receipt of the Biography, Private Correspondence, and the New Edition of the Author's Poetical Works, with 'contemporary criticism—various readings—and correspondence with some of the most eminent persons of the time when the Poems first appeared,' now in the course of publication in England.

Volume 1 will be ornamented with an excellent Portrait of Sir Walter Scott.

DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 19, 1833.

FOREIGN NEWS.—If the intelligence of the capture of Don Miguel's Fleet be well founded, we think the little war, in Portugal, may be considered as fast hastening to a close. The enthusiasm of the people of Algarve, in favor of Don Pedro, is a strong evidence of disaffection to the cause of Don Miguel; and the occupation of positions, both to the North and South of Lisbon, with the easy means of communication between them, by sea, which Pedro will now possess, will give him great advantages in the contest.

MONONGAHELA RIVER.—Dr. Howard, U. S. Civil Engineer, with his assistants, is now here, and has commenced, or is about to commence, a resurvey of this river, from Pittsburgh to Brownsville, for the purpose of ascertaining, more precisely, the expense of rendering it navigable, at all seasons of the year, for steam boats. This improvement is unquestionably one of great importance to Pittsburgh, and we are much surprized at the apathy of our citizens, in relation to the convention shortly to be held in Green county. We still hope, however, that they will yet arouse from their inactivity in time to send delegates.—The proposed improvement will, no doubt, be viewed with much jealousy in some parts of the country, and the fact that the citizens of Pittsburgh had declined even appointing delegates to unite with those from the upper part of the river, in devising the measures necessary and proper to secure the aid of the General Government, would be used as a strong argument against any appropriation.

If this improvement should be made, it will afford an additional security against the extension of the Baltimore Railroad to a point on the Ohio, below Pittsburgh, and an additional inducement to the commencement of the western division of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. Indeed, in point of importance to Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania, this undertaking is second only to a connection with Lake Erie and the Ohio Canal. We, therefore, repeat the hope that our city may be represented in the Convention at Greensboro.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.—We publish, below, a letter from a friend at Bedford, in relation to this great work, and also the article from the Union Town Democrat, upon the same subject.—This article is probably from the pen of the Hon. Andrew Stewart, the Representative in Congress from that district, and long the able, zealous, and indefatigable advocate of this great national work.

The time is truly a favorable one, Col. Eaton, having stepped into the place of that truly able and excellent man, Charles Fenton Mercer, as the President of this Canal Company, will no doubt feel anxious to win golden opinions from all men, and surely no more creditable, no more praiseworthy means could be adopted, than using his influence in favor of this work.—Let us, then, unite in strengthening his hands and warming his zeal, by showing that the work is still a favored one in the West.

General Jackson was elected to the Presidentship in opposition to the wishes of many; yet, when the storm of Nullification came upon us, and his popularity and firmness dissipated it, we all felt gratified—rejoiced that he had been elected.

So Colonel Eaton was elected over the head of Charles Fenton Mercer, in opposition to the wishes of many of us—perhaps it may be his good fortune to overcome all the difficulties in the way of the commencement of the Western Section of this great work, and thus produce gratification and joy at his election.

If any Pittsburgher can feel lukewarm in this matter, let him only bear in mind the following suggestions:—

We have now a great line of water communication, extending from Louisiana to New York, passing by our doors. Complete the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, and the connection with the Lake, and we will then have a continued inland navigation, extending from North Carolina to the Lake of the Woods. Pittsburgh will thus be situated at the point of intersection of two great communications which extend through four fifths of the whole Union. It would be useless to enlarge upon the prospects of a city thus situated at the point of intersection of the two greatest inland communications known in the world.

Extract of a letter to the Editor, dated

"BEDFORD, August 16, 1833.

"I have every reason to believe that Major Eaton will do every thing to obtain public confidence in his new situation, and will use his efforts with the President to promote the Chesapeake and Ohio canal. An application will be made for an appropriation for the Western Section, at the approaching session of Congress; it behooves us at Pittsburgh to be alive and active—we ought to keep public attention directed to this great work. Some gentlemen here, from Baltimore, think the subject will be laid before Congress by the President, and that Eaton has intimated that the President will aid the effort to obtain an appropriation. You have already published some articles on the subject of the canal.—I enclose to you an article sent to me with a request to obtain its insertion in some of the Pittsburgh papers—oblige me by giving it a place, if you have not already done it—and take hold of the subject."

From the Uniontown Democrat, August 7.

CHESAPEAKE & OHIO CANAL.

Messrs. Editors:—Why is it that the public press, filled with the nonsensical letters of Jack Downing, passes by this great object without even a casual notice? What subject is better calculated to enlist the earnest support of the statesman and patriot than this great enterprise, constituting one of the most powerful and enduring bonds of National Union; which Gen. Washington, (who was the first to commence and advocate this grand design) pronounced, more than 40 years ago, to be the best, if not the only cement to keep the eastern and western states united?—What could add more to the glory and renown of the present chief magistrate, than to take up and complete this great and favorite object of Washington, "who would" (to use the expression of an eloquent friend of this work) "look down from heaven with approbation upon the exertions of its friends." 117 miles, more than one third of the whole distance from Washington to Pittsburgh, is now under contract, and nearly completed, at an expense of nearly three millions of dollars. It is therefore embraced by the President's views. He has, in his messages, declared himself in favor of completing all the national works already commenced, and what more auspicious moment than the present? The national debt is paid—our national treasury is overflowing—this year, we shall, it appears, have a surplus of some 12 or 15 millions. To what better, and I might add, to what other object can it be applied? The friends of the Tariff it seems were right when they predicted that to reduce the tariff would increase the revenue by increasing foreign imports, from which our revenue is principally derived. Since, then, we cannot get rid of the revenue, why not expend it on internal improvements? and where is there an object in the Union more national than this, uniting, as it does, by the nearest and most central communication, the seat of the National Government, and the tides of the Atlantic, with the great valley of the Mississippi? If there is an object more national—better calculated to promote all the purposes of commerce, in peace; defence, in war, and Union, at all times, let it be pointed out.—Why was this selected from among all others, by Washington, as the best communication, and advocated with such untiring zeal and perseverance, from 1754 (when but 22 years of age) till the day of his death? and when did he err in his judgment?—Now, when the treasury of the Government is ample, the voice of the nation demands the accomplishment of this great object, so near and dear to the heart of Washington, and what better services can Andrew Jackson render to his country?—what prouder monument can he erect to his own future fame, than to have it proclaimed, by his countrymen, and recorded in history, that "Washington was the author, and Jackson the finisher of this, the most splendid monument that ever signalized any age or country?" WASHINGTON.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.—The following paragraphs are from the last Lancaster Journal, a thorough going Jackson paper. We think they show pretty clearly that Mr. Buchanan is to be the Van Buren candidate for senator. Our readers probably recollect that it was lately said, in this same Lancaster Journal, that Mr. Buchanan was expected home from Russia, some time in November next. Congress and our Legislature meet in December. So that Mr. Buchanan will just have time to get warm in his house, in Lancaster, to count his twenty two thousand dollars, and then go to Washington—if he should be elected, but there's the rub.

Mr. Buchanan must find this kind of rotation in office, which whirls him from the House of Representatives to St. Petersburg, and from St. Petersburg to the Senate of the United States, very pleasant.

One thing, in these paragraphs, is undeniably correct. It is indeed now too late to gag at Federalism or Federalists.

As a Federalist, we would be well pleased with the election of Mr. Buchanan to the senate, if he had never written his equivocal and equivocating letter about the "bargain and sale."

"The Doylestown Democrat thinks that Mr. Buchanan ought not to be elected to the Senate of the United States, because he was once a leader of the Federal party. If this objection was got over in the case of Mr. Wilkins we cannot see why it should be a stumbling block in the case of Mr. Buchanan."

"The Northern Banner, we observe it stated, says that Mr. Buchanan was a most distinguished member of the Federal party, that he is a talented and honorable man, and that in point of talents no party need be ashamed of him, but regrets that his political principles are such that he, as a Democrat, cannot support them. What does the Banner say to the principles of Andrew Jackson—those of the Proclamation—what to those of McLane, Taney, Cass, Wilkins, and many other Federalists who are now high in the confidence of the great Democratic Republican party of the country!"

KENTUCKY ELECTIONS.—The Maysville Eagle, of Thursday, gives the following account of the Congressional elections in that state:

In the Third District—Judge Tompkins is re-elected by a majority of 90 votes over Mr. Hise, his opponent.

Fifth District.—Robert P. Letcher, by 79 votes over T. P. Moore.

Sixth District.—Thomas Chilton.

Ninth District.—James Love, by a small majority over Mr. White.

In the Seventh District—Benjamin Hardin is supposed to be elected by a small majority over Dr. Rudd.

In the Fourth District, it is believed that Col. Martin Beatty has beaten Dr. Gaither.

Thirteenth District.—Col. R. M. Johnson is re-elected, without a regularly organized opposition.

Tenth District.—Chilton Allan, without opposition.

Eleventh District.—Amos Davis, by a majority of from 6 to 700 votes over James Crawford—both National Republicans.

Twelfth District.—Thomas A. Marshall, majority unknown, supposed to be between 8 and 900.

In the Eighth District—The contest has been very close between Mr. Crittenden and Mr. Pope. The latter is said to be elected by a majority of 78 votes.

FURTHER EXTRACTS FROM THE PAPERS RECEIVED BY THE ONTARIO.

ENGLAND.

Abolition of Slavery.—In the Commons, on the 8th of July—

Mr. Stanley stated, that as the slavery bill was not yet printed and ready, and as both sides objected to going on with it upon so short a notice, on Wednesday next, he would give way to his right honorable friend, (Mr. C. Grant) on that day, for moving the second reading of the East India bill; and he would postpone the second reading of the bill for the abolition of slavery until Monday next, on the understanding that it would be still farther postponed if the house should not, by that time, have got through the East India bill.

Value of Slaves.—The indemnity to the West Indians is said to be estimated at one third value of the slaves—viz: one third of an able bodied slave, 55*l.*, do. one past his prime, 25*l.*, do. a child, 10*l.* Putting the three sums together, the amount is 90*l.*; which gives 30*l.* as the average; and 30*l.* multiplied by 700,000*l.* gives 21,000,000*l.* as the third part of the whole, old and young.

On this subject we observe the London Standard, in referring to the West India question, has received the following information, which threatens the whole emancipation project, at least for the present:—

"The kind of compromise which the government had made with the colonial delegates and West India planters, merchants, and ship owners, has been broken up, chiefly in consequence of an attempt to include the slave owners of Honduras, the Cape of Good Hope, and we believe the Mauritius, as partners in the division of the twenty millions—thus, farther reducing their adequate dividend to the actual West Indian proprietors.—However, this, and most of the other questions that the House of Commons has been idly dallying with, through the Session, are in danger of an untimely end—from an explosion, the premonitory symptoms of which have been thickening within the last week, or ten days."

In Sheffield, Leeds, Bradford, and Rockdale, Eng. the state of the manufacturing interests is very flattering. The staple trade of Sheffield is much revived by some extensive orders from this country. Prices were well sustained, and the demand for merinos rather brisk. Flannel and baize were in greater demand than was ever before known; and expectations were entertained of a prosperous season.

PORTUGAL.

The decisive blow still remains to be struck.—The Lisbonians are disappointed at Admiral Napier's non appearance with the troops in the Tagus, as they believe that the war would have been terminated almost without loss of blood in favor of the Liberals.

The Miguelite fleet continued in the Tagus.—The Duke de Dadoval inspected them on the morning of the 25th; on the occasion, the yards were manned. Several of the officers continue to desert. Every exertion is making to get the fleet to sea, but the prevailing opinion is that the crews will not fight. The Government of Lisbon had been made acquainted, by telegraph, of a militia regiment having boldly deserted from Matra, but no certain information had been received as to where they had gone.

The following is an estimate of the Constitutional army now in Portugal, from a source to be fully relied on; 11,050 Portuguese, 2,900 French, 1,900 English, and 600 men of various other nations; 12,000 of whom it is supposed could be brought to the field. The Pike spoke the Talavera ship of war, bound for Lisbon, on the 30th—and left in the Tagus, Asia, Donegal, and Stag. Vessels to the number of eighty, continued off Oporto. One English vessel was there on the 28th, having a full cargo of shot, shell, and rockets, waiting the opportunity to land them for the service of the Liberal Army.

The London and Birmingham Railway is proposed to be 112 miles long, and rise 256 feet. The different levels require one rise of 315 feet in 15 miles, or 11 minutes only. There will be ten tunnels, and two lines, 6 feet distant, with places for turning out. It will pass under Primrose Hill, by Waterford, Northampton, and Kilsby, entering Warwickshire near Farnborough. For 15 miles it will pass through clay; for 19, chalk; 20, marl and clay; 16, has marl; and 24 1-2 red marl and sand stone; the traveling rate will be 20 miles an hour, and the distance be performed in 5 1-2 hours, or between breakfast and dinner. A similar railway is in progress from Birmingham to Manchester, of 4 1-2 hours distance.

A Society of pigeon fanciers of Ghent gave an annual prize for the best carrier pigeon. This year it was decided, on the 24th ult. when 24 birds were sent off from Rouen, where they had been conveyed from Ghent. They were started at 25 minutes after nine in the morning. The first which arrived belonged to Mr. Deleuw, and made the transit in an hour and a half, gaining the prize; 1 reached Ghent in two hours and a half, 3 arrived in the course of the day, and four were lost. The distance in a direct line is about 150 miles.

Don Pedro and Miguel.—Some passages of controversy have taken place between the National Intelligencer and the Philadelphia Gazette, as to the respective claims of the Portuguese brothers, Miguel and Pedro, to be considered the liberal party in their present struggle for the throne of Portugal. It is a curious point. Miguel has, thus far, the evidence of popular favor on his side, against the claims of his brother, which rests upon the doctrine of legitimacy. On the other hand, Pedro promises a constitutional government, in place of the pure despotism of his younger competitor. Here is the preference of the people apparent and as yet not disproved, for an absolute usurper, against the legitimate with a constitution. Who shall decide which is the liberal?

As to their personal qualities, it might be less difficult to decide between the competitors, could we credit all that is reported of Miguel, and all that is expected of Pedro. But, on the other hand, the evil that is so profusely, and perhaps with some grounds of truth, stated of the reigning prince, is doubtless much exaggerated; and the past history of the invader gives little warrant of confidence either in his sincerity, his humanity, or his love either of virtue or liberty. There are charges against him, very well substantiated, so far as we have seen the evidence, which stamp his character with treachery, duplicity, and ferocity. Courage he has, and perseverance—at least he has displayed them eminently in Brazil. But if he is to be preferred to Miguel, it is not from his positive merits, but from the greater depravity of the other, which over shadows even his blackness.—Balt. Amer.

Capture of Don Miguel's Fleet!

From the N. Y. American of Wednesday.

The expedition of Donna Maria's adherents to Algarve seems to promise well—both by land and water. Captain Napier had sailed for Lisbon with all his squadron, and we have to day a report by Captain Clark, of the brig Splendid, which arrived last evening from Tarragona, "that Don Pedro's squadron had captured that of Don Miguel, and had put the whole coast under blockade." Capt. Clark passed Gibraltar on the 11th, and received this report from the brig Commerce, for Tampico, which came out of Gibraltar that morning.

Capture of Don Miguel's Fleet.—We are favored, says the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, with the following letter from a highly respectable source.

GIBRALTAR, July 10.—A vessel from Barcelona, stopping at this port for a few supplies, gives me a moment to confirm my respects of the 28th instant, and to inform you that news has just been received of the taking of Don Miguel's fleet by that of Don Pedro; so that there is little or no doubt that the War in Portugal will find a termination, during the summer, in favor of Donna Maria. Prices continue much the same as last advised, flour very dull, and the crops of wheat over abundant in all the South of Europe.

Manufacture of Cotton in the United States.—We proceed, according to our promise, to give further statements of the state of the Cotton manufacture in the United States, in 1831, as collected by the Committee of the New York Convention. In our paper, of Saturday last, we showed that there were, in 12 States of the Union, 795 cotton mills, with a capital of $40,714,984, manufacturing annually 77,751,316 lbs. of Cotton, or 214,882 bales of 361 86-100 lbs. each.

That there may be no doubt as to the accuracy of these statements, we give the names of the following gentlemen, through whose means the accounts were collected from the manufacturers in the different States, viz: Maine and New Hampshire, Lloyd W. Wells and John Williams; Massachusetts and Vermont, Robert Rogerson and Patrick T. Jackson; Rhode Island, James De Wolf, James F. Simmons, and Charles Jackson; Connecticut, J. H. De Forest; New York, E. B. Sherman, James Wild, and Richard P. Hart; New Jersey, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, David Holsman and Mark W. Collet; Pennsylvania, Delaware, and Tennessee, Lewis Waln and Alexander W. Breckenridge; Maryland and Virginia, Columbus James, O'Donnel, and W. W. Calloch.—N. Y. Advocate.

A very pretty argument is employed in some of the newspapers to defend the proceeding of President Jackson in relation to the Bank of the United States. He has a right, it is said, to assume that the charter will not be renewed by Congress, and to begin "to wind up" the institution, because he was re-elected, though the People knew that he was opposed to the renewal. Now, there is no real basis either of fact or reason for this argument.

North of the Potomac, the numerical majority, according to the official returns of the last Presidential election, was against General Jackson; and every one who understands the general ticket system, knows how that may and did happen. Several important national questions and causes of preference for one or other candidate, besides the Bank question, were operative. This is matter of notoriety. Nullification, the Tariff, Anti Masonry, and Masonry, personal predilections and antipathies, and what we may term the military popularity of the "Hero of New Orleans," (much diminished indeed, but still widely efficacious) had each a share in determining the distribution of votes.

Assumptions of perpetual exclusion, whether as to institutions or doctrines, may be said to be condemned by the experience of our government and country. When Mr. Jefferson came into power, it might have been assumed, plausibly enough from his success, that the People had forever repudiated the undertakings, doctrines, and general policy of the Federalists. But how soon were they not revived and adopted by Democratic Congress and Executive! Scruples and fears about an army, a navy, fortifications, and national bank, yielded to necessity or practical conviction, just as did all the Democratic theories respecting the nature and powers of our federal system, and about State rights, when President Jackson issued his Proclamation reinstating those of old Federalism, and even something stronger. Let the government again attempt to forego a national bank, and it will not be long before resort will be again had to such an institution, from a general sense of its indispensableness.—Nat. Gaz.

Illegal Voting.—Thomas Simpson was, on Tuesday, tried in the Court of Sessions, in the city of New York, upon the charge of wilful and corrupt perjury, in swearing in an illegal vote at the last charter election. The evidence was clear against him, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty, without leaving their seats. Intoxication is the only plea relied on for the extenuation of his offence. How far it is to be regarded as available, we shall know on Saturday. It is high time that a wholesome corrective were applied to this species of transgression.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

It is stated, in the Lexington Intelligencer, upon information from Tennessee, that the Hon. David Crockett has been again elected to Congress.—Maysville Eagle.

A few days since, two cars laden with bricks, weighing altogether more than eight tons, were taken by one horse, the whole length of the West Chester Rail Road, three miles of which have a grade of forty feet in the mile. On an ordinary road, this weight would have required about sixteen horses.

The number of letters of administration, granted by the County Court of Mason, on Monday last, has no parallel in the previous history of the county. It presented the most melancholy evidence of the ravages of the deadly pestilence which has been among us.—Maysville Eagle.

Benefit of Fast Sailing.—The ship Monsoon arrived here yesterday in 100 days from Padang.—Her voyage out was performed in 97 days. The M. left Padang, we understand, 10 days after another Boston ship which has not yet arrived, and the difference in the sale of her coffee alone, owing to this circumstance, is estimated at three thousand dollars.—Boston Journal.

There are two eventful periods in the life of a woman; one, when she wonders who she shall have,—the other, when she wonders who will have her.

There is no repeal of a tax which has so much benefited the consumers as that of coal. The best coals are now selling in London at 24*s.* the ton,—which is equal to about 32*s.* a chaldron.

It is positively asserted that the Courts of Russia, Austria, and Prussia, will immediately send ambassadors to Leopold, as King of Belgium. This must tend to an early settlement of the question with the king of Holland.

HANNAH HALL, who was charged with the murder of her infant, was called into Court, on Wednesday morning, the 6th inst., to hear her sentence;—the Jury, the preceding evening, after a short absence, having returned a verdict of "Guilty of secreting the death of her child," which was the fourth count in the indictment.

The Court sentenced her to an imprisonment of four years, in solitary confinement, in the Jail and Penitentiary of Philadelphia, to be taken thither by the Sheriff, forthwith; to be removed from the Jail to the Penitentiary, whenever the cells, in that Institution, are prepared for the reception of subjects. And to be fed and clothed as the law directs.—Village Record, Aug. 14.

A home thrust.—Mr. Kendall, the Fourth Auditor of the Treasury, is now on a confidential mission in the service of the government, recommended to it by his ability, experience, and integrity;—a man of the purest character and of the highest principles, of imposing talents, and the most amiable and venerable in appearance that either of those editors ever looked upon.—N. Y. Standard.

It is well that our cotemporary states explicitly the name of the person to whom it ascribes this exalted character; for most assuredly neither Amos himself, nor any one acquainted with him, would be able to recognize the likeness. One part of the statement is true, however. Kendall does possess "imposing talents." He imposed himself upon Mr. Clay, who took him in, and provided for him, when poor and sick. After having been warmed into life, and cherished in that family, he played the part of the frozen serpent, and stung his benefactor, by a betrayal of his private correspondence.—N. Y. Spectator.

IRISH PROTESTANT'S EVENING HYMN, FOR 1833.

The following beautiful composition, alas! but too applicable to the present state of the Protestants of Ireland, we extract from Fraser's Magazine.

Hear us, gracious God! this night—
Hear thy servants' prayer;
Send thy holy angels down,
To have us in their care.
Guard us, Lord, from every harm—
From the fire, and from the sword;
Have us in thy holy keeping,
Mighty, mighty Lord!

We would lay down our heads to rest,
In trembling and in fear,
But that thy faithful servants know
That Thou art ever near.
To Thee, to Thee, O God! we turn,
And cry, with one accord,
Have us in thy holy keeping,
Mighty, mighty Lord!

Few are thy servants in this land,
And many are thy foes,
Who fear not thy Almighty power,
And all thy ways oppose;
Men who delight to shed the blood
Of those who love thy word—
But thou wilt have them in thy keeping,
Mighty, mighty Lord!

As we have in many ways
Offended thee this day,
Forgive thy contrite servants, Lord?
For thy son's sake we pray:
Yes! for our blessed Savior's sake,
Who has for us implored:
Have us in thy holy keeping,
Mighty, mighty Lord!

Not for ourselves alone, O Lord!
Breathe we this humble prayer;
Our brethren, all, throughout this land,
Lie pressed in sore despair.
Extend thy saving help to them,
To them thine aid afford;
Have them in thy holy keeping,
Mighty, mighty Lord!

PROSPECT HILL

Literary & Scientific Institution.

PITTSBURGH, Pa.

ON the 1st of July, Mr. DANIEL STONE intends opening, near the City of Pittsburgh, an Institution for the instruction of boys. Its plan is to combine, as far as possible, the peculiar advantages of a domestic and public education.—The pupils, with the principal and assistants, will constitute one family, and be at all times under careful supervision. The Discipline will be mild, but strict, such as a father, solicitous for the welfare of his children, would exercise over them. It is believed that an appeal to reason, and the sense of honor and duty, will generally secure obedience. Coercive measures will, therefore, be adopted only in extreme cases.

The Course of Study will embrace the English, Latin, Greek, and French Languages; Arithmetic, Algebra, and Geometry; Geography and History—Ancient and Modern; Rhetoric, Composition, and Elocution; Natural Philosophy and Chemistry; Penmanship, Orthography, and Reading. Frequent examinations will be held, open to the friends and relations of the youths.

The Mode of Instruction will be thorough and critical, and no subject will be relinquished until fully understood. That the scholar's mind may become vigorous, active, and self-confident—prepared for the stern conflicts of life, and a fearless discharge of its duties, he will be encouraged to reason and decide for himself.

Each student will be required to attend such church as his parent or guardian shall designate.

To preserve health and elasticity of spirits, to check indolence, and promote industry among the students, they will be daily exercised in athletic sports.

Pupils will be admitted between the ages of Six and Sixteen. None can be received for less than one term.

The uniform Dress will consist of a cap, blue roundabout, with metal buttons, and blue pantaloons. Every article of clothing should be marked with the owner's name in full.

The Terms are two hundred dollars a year, payable quarterly in advance. This includes Tuition, Board, Lodging, Washing, Mending, Light, and Fuel.

The Vacations, after the present year, will be three—the 1st, of two weeks, from the 3d Wednesday in April; the 2d, of four weeks, from the 2d Wednesday in August; and one week at Christmas.

The Matron's department will be under the care of Mrs. Reynolds, of this city.

New Theatre, Pittsburgh.

THE Public is respectfully informed, that this ELEGANT NEW THEATRE, at present building, in Fifth Street, will be opened for the Season, under the management of the subscriber, with a Dramatic Company not surpassed by any in the Union, on Monday, the Second of September, 1833.

The building has been substantially erected, by those well known Mechanics, Messrs. Roseburg, Reynolds, Scott, & McCulloch, after a plan drawn by John Haviland, Esq., of Philadelphia, whose justly acquired fame as an Architect will be increased by the style and Beauty of the Present Edifice.

A first rate London Artist has been employed, for the last three months, in preparing the Dresses especially for this Theatre, which, in point of

ELEGANCE AND SPLENDOR,

Will equal, if not surpass those belonging to the Metropolitan Theatres of New York, or Philadelphia.

THE SCENERY

Has been designed and executed by Mr. J. R. Smith, a young Artist of great talent, and whose productions may challenge comparison with those of the most distinguished Scene Painters of the day.

THE MACHINERY

Has been entrusted to the care of Mr. Stafford, late of the Philadelphia Theatres, and the direction of the

MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT

Will be placed under the Superintendence of Mr. Hoffner, of the Chesnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia.

In addition to the exertions of the Regular Company, most of whom are advantageously known in the Eastern Theatres, the Manager has great pride and pleasure in informing the inhabitants of Pittsburgh and its vicinity, that he has engaged, at great expense, the celebrated American Tragedian

MR. E. FORREST,

Who will have the honor of appearing before them at an early period, of which due notice will be given. Negotiations have already been entered into with the most distinguished Performers of the American Stage, who will appear in rapid succession—among others,

MR. & MRS. HILSON,
MISS CLARA FISHER,
MRS. KNIGHT,
MR. J. R. SCOTT,

Also, Mr. PARSLOE, of the Theatre, Covent Garden, London, &c. &c. &c.

In making these arrangements, the subscriber has used every exertion in his power to render THE THEATRE a place of rational amusement—

"To raise the genius and to mend the heart;
Shew Virtue her own features;
Vice her own image;
The age and body of the time, his form and pressure."

And he throws himself confidently on the liberality of the citizens of Pittsburgh for support.

☞ WELCH MEDICAMENTUM. ☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn, It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

Utica, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer is vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from exposure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞ A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes givingt emporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradually increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in a cases, and is a pleasant medicine to take.

PATENT PLANING MACHINE.—The right to use this valuable machine, invented and patented by William Woodworth, and known as Woodworth's Patent Planing Machine, may be obtained on application to the subscriber for the counties of Allegheny, Butler, Beaver, Washington, Green, Fayette, Somerset, Cambria, Indiana, Jefferson, Clearfield, M'Kean, Warren, Venango, Mercer, Crawford, and Erie, in the State of Pennsylvania. That part of Maryland lying west of the Blue Ridge; all that part of Virginia lying west of the Blue Ridge, except the county of Ohio. The whole of the state of Ohio except the counties of Hamilton, Butler, and Montgomery. The whole of the state of Kentucky, except the counties of Jefferson, Boone, Oldham, Gallatin, and Campbell. The whole of Indiana, except the counties of Floyd, Clark, Jefferson, Dearborn, and Switzerland. The whole of the state of Illinois, and the territory of Michigan. Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale the farm on which he lives, in Washington county, on Pigeon creek, one mile south of Williamsport, on the Monongahela river, to which there is a perfectly level road. This farm contains near 400 acres, the greater part of which is first rate land. There is on the premises a Brick Dwelling House, a Merchant mill, in good repair, a new saw mill, a stone still house, 35 by 40 feet; a salt works is also in operation, and worked to advantage; about 150 acres of land cleared and under good fence. There is on the premises three small tenements for the accommodation of families. This tract is well timbered, and abounds with stone coal and springs of water, both of the best quality.
